Challenges

- Modernize operations and change the way work gets done.
- Speed up critical business decision-making and strengthen competitive positioning within the marketplace.
- Improve efficiencies across its operations by integrating the data that is currently housed in disparate systems.
- Shorten lead times and drive down inventory and purchasing costs.

Benefits

- Reduced costs by nearly 10 million Baht across its purchasing and inventory with better material planning.
- Saved time with more efficient decision-making that can be supported by streamlined, standardized processes.
- Achieved faster planning times and reduced workload with better information flow and integration with its existing planning and scheduling solution.
- Made more efficient purchasing decisions to anticipate styles that change from order to order thanks to the ability to view existing inventory alongside production plans.
- Provided traceability across its operations.
- Gained local support.

“The relationship between V.T. Garment and Infor is seen as a ‘partnership’ and not a ‘vendor-buyer’ relationship. Infor was ready to work with us to test out different approaches to make the implementation and processes better.”

—Mr. Chalumporn Lotharukpong, Group Managing Director,
