Get an inside track with one of the fastest-growing and innovative cloud solution providers

The Infor® Industry & Selection Consultants Program (I&SC) helps support key market influencers, including accounting, tax and audit firms, independent consulting firms, private equity companies, and thought leaders in specific industries and functional areas. As influencers in this community, you provide deep expertise, guide customers in transformation and change management, and help define solution requirements to guide customers in their software selection processes.

Our program provides targeted education, engagement, and collaboration opportunities to help ensure you have accurate knowledge of Infor’s offerings. With a global ecosystem of people, systems, and services, the program helps ensure that Infor I&SC members receive the most accurate information on Infor’s industry, solution, and technology offerings.

A program designed for you

Infor recognizes the value your independent, strategic consultation delivers to the market. Our program provides targeted education, engagement, and collaboration opportunities to help ensure you have accurate access to information about Infor products.

Unlike many of our competitors, we are challenging the conventional way technology companies think and operate. We enable you to advise your clients with accurate and current information on products, solutions, and company strategy at a level that is right for you. We provide vehicles and tools to help you get the latest information and content, so it’s easy to connect with Infor and stay abreast of what we’re doing.

Infor’s I&SC program provides four distinct pillars:

Education

Co-marketing

Events

Tools & Content

What can you expect? Here are some of the key benefits for members of the I&SC program with a mutual non-disclosure (mNDA) agreement.
